Appendix to Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form

Aspen Institute Senior Congressional Education Staff Network Retreat, August 6-8, 2019.

Question 12. Briefly describe the role of each sponsor in organizing and conducting the trip (response continued) -- The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation is not a sponsor of this trip and did not play a role in organizing, planning or conducting the trip. The Foundation provided grant funding to support the Aspen Institute Education & Society Program, including the Aspen Senior Congressional Education Staff Network; however, the Foundation did not earmark any funding for this trip.

Questions 13. Briefly describe the stated mission of each sponsor and how the purpose of the trip relates to the mission (response continued) – The Aspen Institute Education and Society Program seeks to provide a neutral forum to aid education policymakers in their efforts to improve K-12 public education. The purpose of the trip is to conduct a non-partisan educational retreat that encourages off-the-record, candid exchanges of ideas to support staffers' learning.

Question 15. Briefly describe the educational activities performed by each sponsor (other than sponsoring congressional trips) (response continued) — The Aspen Institute organizes numerous educational activities, including educational briefings, roundtables, forums and conferences for a diverse range of attendees including federal and state policymakers, business and organizational leaders, members of the press and the general public. The Aspen Institute Education and Society Program works with federal, state and local education leaders to improve K-12 student achievement, particularly for underserved students.

Session II: Innovation in Teaching & Learning, Accountability & Assessment

Virgel Hammonds, Chief Learning Officer, KnowledgeWorks

Leah Walker, Director, Office of Equity and Community Engagement, Virginia Department of Education

Cindy Ambrose, Deputy Superintendent, Charleston County School District

Tiffany Stanley, Chief of Staff to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Utah

State Board of Education

Faculty will present for the first half of the session, followed by a facilitated discussion.

Faculty will detail how states and districts are currently using innovative approaches to teaching and learning, accountability and assessment, to increase equity and outcomes for all students. They will describe how innovation intersects with ESSA and other federal and state laws and policies and where there are challenges or additional opportunities.

Guiding Questions:

What teaching and learning innovations, such as personalized learning or course access are states and districts pursuing as a result of ESSA (and/or federal policy)? Is Innovative Assessment Pilot enough to encouraging enough innovative assessment practices?

How do these innovations support ESSA's equity and outcome goals?

 How are these models being evaluated for impact? Or being used to support and complement school improvement initiatives?

improvement strategies?

Cindy Ambrose, Deputy Superintendent, Charleston County School District Virgel Hammonds, Chief Learning Officer, KnowledgeWorks

Staff will go on a partner walk to address the following questions:

- 1. What innovation(s) did you expect to see as a result of ESSA and how has this played out in practice?
- 2. How can innovation be balanced with the equity guardrails required in the law?

All staff and faculty will engage in a full group discussion reflecting on discussions from the partner walk. This will be followed by a look at how states and districts are thinking about innovation in accountability and assessment.

Additional Guiding Questions:

How does innovation support ESSA's goals?

What implications for equity can we draw from innovative efforts at the state and district levels to date?

What is the role of ESSA relative to other state and/or district policies, practices, and/or funding streams in supporting innovation? How could these policies be more coherent and aligned?

Session VI: Exploring Report Cards in the ESSA Era

Leah Walker, Director, Office of Equity and Community Engagement, Virginia Department of Education

Bryan Johnson, Superintendent, Hamilton County Schools

Tiffany Stanley, Chief of Staff to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Utah State Board of Education

Guiding Questions:

How is ESSA's theory of action around transparency and school improvement playing out?

 How are report cards helping to highlight equity? Are states complying with all of the reporting requirements under the law? Are there any concerns about transparency, accessibility, and disaggregation?

How are SEAs and LEAs reporting on required additional measures (such as discipline or teacher quality data), or additional measures they have chosen to report on that do not contribute to accountability determinations?

Which SEA or LEA report cards are especially well-designed? What about them seems most promising?
